

Participation Rubric for the Group Presentation

Assessment	5	4	3	2	1
Overall comprehension	The translation reflected the passage with clear understanding of structure and meaning.	The translation reflected the passage with a generally successful understanding of structure and meaning.	The translation reflected the ideas of the passage, but some details were confusing or incorrect.	The translation reflected a few of the ideas in the passage correctly, many details were confusing and incorrect.	The translation had little relation with the actual material presented.
Participation in group presentation	The translation of verbs demonstrates a clear understanding of how syntax relates to tense, person and number.	The translation demonstrates an understanding of how syntax relates to tenses, person and number with few errors.	The translation demonstrates some understanding of tense, person and number, but some errors obscure meaning of the passage.	The translation demonstrates a limited understanding of tense, person and number, and several errors obscure meaning of the passage.	The translation demonstrates little understanding of tense, person and number and makes the passage incomprehensible.
Individual Translation Promptness	The translation demonstrates a sophisticated understanding of the use of nouns and cases in the Latin language.	The translation demonstrates a generally correct understanding of the use of nouns and cases in the Latin language.	The translation demonstrates some understanding of the use of nouns and cases in the Latin language.	The translation demonstrates little understanding of the use of nouns and cases in the Latin language.	The translation does not demonstrate an understanding of the use of nouns and cases in the Latin language.
Professionalism	Student acted in an extremely professional manner and treated his/her classmates with respect.	Student acted in a professional manner and treated his/her classmates with respect.	Student acted in a somewhat professional manner and treated his/her classmates with respect most of the time.	The translation demonstrates a limited understanding of pronouns and the omission of subject pronouns.	The translation demonstrates little understanding of the usage of pronouns in Latin.
Peer Reviews	Student received excellent reviews from his/her peers.	Student received good reviews from his/her peers.	Student received average reviews from his/her peers.	Student received below average reviews from his/her peers.	Student received poor reviews from his/her peers.